6. (Confidential - JMM) Provided John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Services Committee Staff, with press material he had requested dealing with the White House announcement on the intelligence community.

7. (Confidential - JMM) Discussed with Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, the significance of the White House announcement on the intelligence community. Braswell reviewed the paper on the legal aspects of the matter provided by Mr. Houston and said he might have further questions in view of Senator Stennis' continuing concern over the effect of the new procedures called for in the White House announcement.

8. (Secret - GLC) Met with George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, and gave him a copy of the unclassified background statement which was distributed by the British Foreign Office on the case of Oleg Lyalin, the KGB officer who defected to the British.

I also alerted Murphy to preparations which the ChiComs are making for another nuclear test some time within the next month.

25X1A 9. (Confidential - GLC) Picked up from the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee galley proofs on the publication "Soviet Intelligence and Security Services, 1964-70." These have been forwarded to [REDACTED]
25X1A [REDACTED] for review. J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel of the Subcommittee, said we could ride the jacket with GPO for additional copies of this publication if we wished.

10. (Internal Use Only - RW) Judy Spahr, Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations staff, called and requested a subscription [REDACTED] STATSPEC
STATSPEC [REDACTED] I told Miss Spahr it would take about two weeks before they would start receiving this publication. [REDACTED] has been advised.

11. (Internal Use Only - RW) Mr. J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called. He said he understood there was a dossier available on [REDACTED] UN, and he would like to have a copy. I told him I would check on this and let him know.
